

THOUSANDS OF REDS ARE ARRESTED

SEVEN MEM ARE TAKEN TO BOSTON FOR THE HEARING

Trunk Load of Red Literature Found; May Deport the Men to Russia.

The seven men arrested by the officials from the Department of Justice late Friday night were taken to Boston this afternoon where they will be arraigned before U. S. Immigration Commissioner Skoffington. They are all charged with being members of the Russian Communist Association which is pledged to overthrow the government. A trunk-load of literature that was taken at the time of the arrests was sent along with the men to Boston. It is likely that nearly all will be deported to Russia, in the opinion of the government officials. Those placed under arrest are Mike Babrow, Fred Labudrik, John Stiff, Kelley Henscheloff, Stanley Bellows, Vasil Pruden, Julius Crank. The warrants were from the Department of Labor. The officers making the arrests will continue to work in this city. Many relatives of the arrested men flocked to the police headquarters today, and did considerable crying over the affair. The men were members of the Portsmouth branch of the organization.

20,000 BODIES OF SOLDIERS TO BE BROUGHT HOME

Paris, Jan. 3.—The French government has granted permission for the removal of the bodies of 20,000 American soldiers buried in France to the United States. The bodies to be removed are those buried in cemeteries outside the zone of the army and do not include those gathered into big American cemeteries in the army zone.

NATION WIDE ROUND-UP OF REDS NUMBER 4500

New England Alone Produced 800

Washington, Jan. 3.—Arrests in the nation wide radical raid last night and today had exceeded 4500 at noon, it was estimated by the Dept. of Justice. More than half of this number probably will be held for deportation, officials said. Assistant Attorney Gen. Garvan in charge of the raids said more than 2000 persons were held on "perfect cases" and that the raid promised to be not only the greatest in scope but also the greatest in results of any in history. In every city where the raid machinery was set in motion he said success attended the efforts. Four thousand warrants were issued but the arrests exceeded that number. Heides the 2000 "perfect cases" Mr. Garvan said Federal agents obtained sufficient evidence to justify the arrest of the others. Washington, Jan. 3.—In a sweeping drive against radicalism agents of the department of Justice were completing nation wide raids against communist organizations in which several thousands were taken in custody with the view of deportation. The government hopes to fill another "Soviet ark" and send it floating across the Atlantic to Bolshevik Russia, where the radicals will be permitted to join their kilt and kin. The Department of Justice estimated that 3500 "undesirables" would be caught in a drag net spread over the nation and with their deportation it was believed the backbone of radicalism in America will have been broken. The general charge of attempting to overthrow the government by force and violence was placed against those arrested. Attempts to organize the negroes in a movement to overthrow the present political and economic system of the United States were disclosed, officials of the Department said and they admitted that the propaganda was of such far reaching effect that trouble might yet be expected in some of the others.

N. E. REDS WILL BE TAKEN TO DEER ISLAND

Round-Up of Radicals Will Continue.

(By Associated Press) Boston, Jan. 3.—All the alien undesirable arrested up last night and today in New England, except those taken in Connecticut, will be concentrated at Deer Island in Boston harbor. A new prison there which during the war was used to confine enemy aliens, will be made the radical detention pen, the Commissioner of Immigration said today. The radicals will be guarded by an armed force to be recruited from service veterans. A "Soviet ark" was arranged for today to transport the arrested ones down the harbor and her first trip was set for this afternoon. The Commissioner estimated that of the 800 persons gathered in by Federal agents between 10 and 500 would be sent to Deer Island as probably subject to deportation.

CHAIR FACTORY AT KEENE DESTROYED

(By Associated Press) Keene, N. H., Jan. 3.—The destroyed the 3 story factory and adjacent dry house of the Carey Chair Co. here early today. Approximately 30 carloads of chairs were lost and the roofs of several nearby houses were partly burned. Residents of many buildings in the vicinity had removed their household effects from the danger zone when the fire was brought under control. The loss was estimated at more than $50,000. The cause of the fire was unknown.

NEW YORK RAIDS CONTINUED

(By Associated Press) New York, Jan. 3.—Department of Justice officials armed with 300 warrants continued today their search for radicals begun in a series of raids conducted last night. The transfer to Ellis Island of 201 radicals held for deportation proceedings after being questioned all night by Department agents was begun today. More than 500 persons were released for lack of evidence to connect them with revolutionary doctrines. Last night's round-up was the largest and most successful ever staged in this city officials said. Forty husky reliable men who have been employed in shipyards and other places have been engaged to stand guard over the radicals who will be concentrated at Ellis Island. Many of the regular guards at the island are old and somewhat infirm.

SEVEN ARRESTS IN THIS CITY

Warrants Issued and Raids Made For Radicals by Federal Agents and Local Police

Agents from the Department of Justice who have been working in this city in connection with the nation-wide drive against radicals, assisted by the local police on Friday night arrested seven men who are charged with being radicals. Armed with a number of warrants the agents raided by Mitchell Hurley, Deputy Ducker and other officers raided places on Russell street and on McDonough street and seven men were placed under arrest and brought to the police station. Other warrants are out and at an early hour this morning the police were on the hunt for at least four more men, who were not taken. The names of the men arrested was not given out by the police, on the ground that they were simply assisting in the work and were not in charge, while the Agents of the Department claimed they were under orders not to give out anything until ten o'clock today. In one of the houses where they made a raid the man who was wanted on a warrant had fled, but he had left everything behind him and here was made the greatest capture of all, a Communist Party Charter. This is probably one of the rare finds in New England. In the effects of the arrested men were found masses of red literature and other evidence. The drive in this city as all over the country was for aliens, with the object of deporting them if the evidence was sufficient to convince the Department of Labor. The men as fast as they were brought into the police station were searched and given an examination by Department of Justice officials who are in charge of the raids here.

LYNN RAID NETTED 34

(By Associated Press) Lynn, Mass., Jan. 3.—The federal roundup of Reds caused the imprisonment during the night at the police station here of 31 men who had gathered at a Market street hall to organize a Jewish co-operative bakery. The men were rushed from the hall by Department of Justice agents and local police while they protested they did not know what it was all about. With the station house crowded they were placed under guard in the cell corridors and were unable in the confusion to get word to their friends. This morning when they were brought to court for a hearing they convinced the judge that the bakery plan was the only object of their meeting. All were discharged. It was said that the fact that the meeting was held in a hall which has been a radical rendezvous led to the error.

TRAIN CREW DIDN'T OBEY R. R. ORDERS

Brownsville Junction, Me., Jan. 2.—The Maine Public Utilities Commission held a hearing here today on the wreck on the Canadian Pacific railway near Onawa on December 20, when an east-bound freight train collided head-on with an immigrant train, killing a score of passengers and the engineers and firemen of both trains.

Although a dozen witnesses were summoned, it was decided to examine only four of them. These were R. V. Shaw, night train dispatcher at Brownsville Junction; Arthur M. Kingsdon, night operator at Morkill, where the freight engineer received orders to pass the four sections of the immigrant special at Bodfish siding, two miles west of Onawa; Lester M. Vailley, who rode on the freight train from Greenville Junction to Morkill to relieve Operator Kingsdon; and Owen L. Chase, a locomotive engineer, who was riding in the freight caboose and took to "Conductor Isaac Manuel" of the freight train the order to cross the immigrant special at Bodfish siding.

Transcripts of the records of investigations held by representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission and by officials of the Canadian Pacific railway covering the testimony of all the witnesses were accepted.

The hearing was completed with the presentation of a statement by Division Superintendent J. H. Boyle of the condition of the trains after the collision which he described fully.

The testimony of the railroad men showed the orders from the chief train dispatcher were correct and the good order of the train. It was apparent that the engine and train crews of the freight train followed their instructions or did not follow them.

They should have passed the four sections of the immigrant special at Bodfish siding. Instead they proceeded after the second section had passed with the result that the freight collided with the third section of the immigrant special, while traveling at high speed in a deep cut half a mile east of Bodfish siding.

MONTREAL PATIENTS RELIEVED

Montreal, Jan. 2.—A water famine in this city resulting from a strike of engineers at the municipal waterworks was relieved today after lives of patients in "rain-beaten hospitals" had been endangered by lack of heat during zero weather and holes had been forced in the ice of a canal test frozen in an attempt to prevent a conflagration if a serious fire started.

Today a private company which supplies outlying districts turned its surplus into the city's mains, and Mayor Martin began to hire new engineers after an unsuccessful attempt to placate the strikers who went out for higher wages yesterday morning. It was reported tonight that the engineers of the private company contemplated going out also.

Attempts to induce the police and the firemen to strike in sympathy with the engineers were unsuccessful. Police who were approached by the strikers with this end in view said that they were far too busy trying to prevent conflagrations due to the strike from becoming worse.

The mayor's supply of private water became available at hospitals today just in time. Water for drinking purposes which had been stored in bottles before the strike was nearly exhausted. A conference of all the doctors in the city was in conference at City Hall on measures designed to prevent serious mortality when the faucets begin to run again. The supply however, was so slight that much discretion had to be exercised in its use.

There was not enough adequately to heat the hospitals and nurses continued to keep the patients warm by piling quilts on their beds.

N. H. WOMAN WORKS HER OWN FARM

Not Farmerette, But Farmer, Says Mrs. Mabel Loomis.

Hancock, N. H., Jan. 2.—The woman of 1920 ought to junk her frocks and heels and get after her excesses, get into a pair of honest-to-goodness overalls, go out in God's country and go to work. In the vocabulary of Mrs. Mabel Loomis, the word "farmerette" means something soft and luxurious in bloomers. Up here they call her the "lady of all work" and many a Back Bay debutante would do well, she says, to deserve such a title.

Mrs. Loomis owns a farm, in her own manager, her own man of all work. It's a 65-acre farm, she runs it from her own teamster. In short, though milking the cows and keeping the cattle to tilling the soil. That's why she is up every day at 4 a.m. She has a 10-year-old son to take care of, send to school and help with his lessons.

She builds, additions to her stables with her own hands, picks, sorts and heads her own apples, loads and unloads her milk truck several hours before dawn each morning, and generally does work that, quite a few farm hands she has attempted to employ have given up in the doing. She says she is not a "farmerette," she's a farmer.

STILL SEEKING COMPROMISE ON PEACE TREATY

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Jan. 2.—Efforts to break Peace Treaty deadlock were renewed today as senators who have been on their holiday vacations began to arrive back in Washington, preparatory to the reconvening of Congress on Monday. The only surface development was the number of conferences in which Senator Lodge, the republican leader and Senator Hitchcock the democrat leader, also took part, but not in the same conference. Conferees while not making any statement were confident that there was rapidly approaching a ground on which a compromise could be reached.

A GROUP OF OLD TIME BARBERS

Well, look who's here. Eighteen of Portsmouth's old time barbers. They were on their annual outing several years ago when the camera man (Bill Newell) got them.

The high cost of living never worried this group and a man got a good shave and hair cut for 10 and 20 cents. Only a few of these tonsorial artists still stick to the razor while several have gone to their long rest.

Two of them, D. J. Holland and P. D. Corcoran, continue at the chair in Portsmouth. Others are employed in every section of the country. No bel-ter men ever followed up this work than those seen in the picture. There was no federated organization among them, but they were pretty close in the social line and quite often took an outing along the shores of the Piscataqua. The man seated in the center, Martin Hoyt, who was not only a veteran barber but a veteran of the Civil War, who huddled one of the guns on the U. S. S. Kenansburgh in the famous battle with the Confederate cruiser Alabama in the noted "Battle" off the coast of Cherbourg, France which made history for the American navy. He died a few years ago at Manchester, N. H.

LITERARY CLUB CONDUCTS WATCH PARTY AT RYE

An Interesting Literary Program Given.

On Tuesday evening, in Rye Town Hall, the members of the Atlantic Literary Club were received by the Seaside Literary Club to watch the passing of the old year and to welcome the year of 1920.

The hall was tastefully decorated with evergreen trees and Christmas wreaths, big jardiniere of pine and holly berries, and furnished with handsome rugs and comfortable chairs. Many sofa pillows and "couch" covers dignified the settees making an attractive and beautiful reception room. Small tables were placed at intervals about the room for the convenience of guests who cared to play games.

From eight-thirty to nine-thirty a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. John Squire and Mrs. John Fraser, welcoming the guests as officers of the Seaside Club.

Mrs. H. Russell Sawyer and Miss Ardelle Marston played the company with piano selections during the reception. After a pleasant hour of friendly chat and entertainment was announced by the President, Mr. Squire.

Miss Clara Parsons read a very amusing "Last Will and Testament" in which legacies were made to the members of both clubs, ending a hearty laugh by the members of the club bestowed. This was followed by Miss Alice Squire who read two monologues "The First Club Meeting" and "The Human Tonic." Miss Squire then read "Mr. Tools," and sang "Shipping Order" and "A Straw," much to the enjoyment of everyone. Mr. Fraser gave a history of the early days of the Seaside Club which was organized Oct. 15, 1897. The company then joined in singing old familiar airs while the tables were prepared for serving refreshments. Seventeen small tables were arranged with white covers and individual favors of candy, flowers in the petals of which the guests found their names and places. They were then served with various kinds of sandwiches, olives and coffee, interlarded with cream and cake. As the town clock struck twelve the electric lights were turned off and bayberry candles burned with Rev. Mr. Flagg read a prayer which was written to be read at watch meetings by members of all denominations to receive the new year. Deal Be the "Tie that Binds" was sung, then "America" and last the Doxology. Mr. Flagg pronounced a benediction.

Good wishes and new year greetings made the next few moments gay and happy.

The tables were removed and partners found by matching new year cards and all joined in a grand march. The Virginia Reel was danced and finally the entire company joined hands in a circle which surrounded the hall singing "Auld Lang Syne" and "Home Sweet Home." It was an evening of pleasant fellowship and cordial cheer and will long be remembered by everyone.

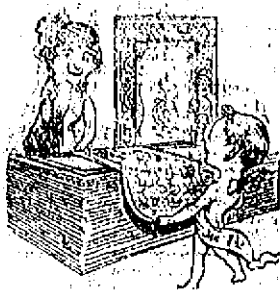

The occasion brought to the remembrance of many present a similar party enjoyed by the same clubs on the eve of Dec. 31st, 1909 when the 20th Century was ushered in. Many of the same persons were present while friendly calls to mind in previous remembrance those who have passed on. The committee in charge of arrangements were as follows:

Is It Being Overdone?

Is the time drawing near, or has it arrived, when this country should exercise greater discretion in the matter of assisting foreign countries that have suffered grievously and are still suffering from the effects of the war? It has been exceedingly liberal in its treatment of war sufferers on the other side of the water; perhaps none too much so, but recent expressions indicate that a proper reserve in connection with these activities may now be as well not only for this country, but for those that have been and still are receiving assistance.

General Tasker H. Bliss, American representative on the Supreme War Council, in a talk with newspapermen in Washington a few days ago said the present unrest in Europe is due almost entirely to unfavorable economic conditions, and that there would be speedy and great improvement if the European nations would combine their resources. In this connection he said those nations should lend Germany every assistance in the organization and maintenance of state governments. He further said that food production in Europe this year will be about 80 per cent of normal and that there will be enough for all if there is proper distribution. Of the situation in Russia General Tasker said: "Personally, I believe that if it were possible to so distribute the supplies in Russia as to put clothes on the backs of the people, to fill their bellies and warm their homes, Bolshevism would disappear in a month."

And William J. Mulligan, chairman of the Knights of Columbus Committee on War Activities, who has just returned from abroad, has something to say which is calculated to set people to thinking. He says that what Europe needs today is red blood, more than relief, adding that there are symptoms there of the people having been spoiled by America's lavish assistance. "It would be unacceptable," he said, "if gratitude were shown to America for what she has done. Europe will take all we have to give, and certainly we should give something, but we should ask for an accounting of everything we give and insist that the statesmen of Europe get down to business if they want to continue receiving our help."

Few will charge a Knights of Columbus man with overstating the case. No organization has been more active and helpful in connection with war work, and Mr. Mulligan, having been on the scene, knows what he is talking about. It will be noted that he does not advocate complete cessation of assistance, but feels that the time is at hand for the peoples who have been receiving aid to get down to hardpan and obliterate the evidences of being spoiled by what has been done for them.

Accepting the views of General Tasker and Mr. Mulligan as correct, it would seem to be time for the abandonment of emotionalism and for dealing soberly with conditions as they are. No one contends that no further aid will be necessary, but no nation, no matter how hard hit by the war, should be spoiled by kindness and encouraged to "lie down" on its benefactor.

The sum and substance of the whole matter is that hysteria and emotionalism are no longer in order in dealing with the problems that the war brought to the people of the United States. From this time on there should be met soberly and handled in a businesslike manner. Charity fails or its true purpose when carried to the point of lessening the desire and ability of its recipients to help themselves.

The authorities are after the wood alcohol whiskey men in dead earnest and a number of them are already in custody. It is not probable that any of them will be convicted of first degree murder or that any such crime was intended, but it is probable that the outcome will make the artificial whiskey business even more unpopular than it is now.

No state was second to New Hampshire in admiration of the course of Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts in connection with the Boston policemen's strike; but when it comes to the selection of a candidate for president, that's another matter, and even Massachusetts is ready to admit that the Granite State cannot at present be included in the Coolidge column.

The threat of the "mild reservationists" to become less mild is having its effect in the Senate and it is hoped that the result may be the early conclusion of a very important piece of work. The people want that peace treaty disposed of.

Cost of living troubles are not confined to the United States. They resulted in a riot in Havana the other day in which one man was killed and a number of others were wounded.

With the deportation of undesirable aliens and the arrival of large numbers of immigrants conditions at Ellis Island have reached a state of uncomfortable congestion.

Certain it is that attempts to beat "bone dryness" have landed many in the "bone yard."

New Year's banquets in Chicago were not even permitted to have their own "stuff" unless the banquets were held in their homes. New York was much more liberal.

This fake whiskey business seems to be dangerous at every turn. A New York man was fatally asphyxiated the other day by gas from the stove on which he was operating a "moonshine" still.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Equally Good Move (From the Brooklyn Eagle)

Why can't the United States send picture bridegrooms home to Japan, instead of having picture brides come here? It's a poor rule that doesn't work both ways.

We're Rich (From the Toronto Mail and Empire)

Republicans in the American Congress say that a billion dollars must be knocked off the year's estimates. Americans can talk as glibly about saving a billion as about spending it.

A "Fine Talking Point" (From the Springfield Republican)

Charles H. Spradell of New York, arguing against "picture brides," tells the Japs in Tokyo that "the system is an affront to a long prevailing custom of our country, where we are as greatly attached to free matrimonial choice as you are to your reverence for your ancestors." This is what salesmen call a "fine talking point." But wealthy naps in America hold to mental reservations about free matrimonial choice, nevertheless and notwithstanding.

The Wreck of a Dictatorship (From the Detroit Free Press, Ind.)

The cabinet is falling to pieces and is arriving at a state of impotency that prevents anything except the most commonplace sort of functioning. The whole executive department seems to be in a lather. It is reported, for instance, that in some departments hundreds of useless clerks are continuing on the payroll as hangers-on from the year-time stress because nobody seemed to have the authority, or perhaps the energy, to oust them. And there is nothing warranting the hope that conditions will get any better before they grow worse.

Here is a situation that is made possible only because for the last seven years the office of the Chief Executive has been considered by its occupants not a presidency but a dictatorship. Now the hand of the master has weakened, and there is no one in regular place schooled or permitted to do his work. The favorite scramble for place and power.

The New Poor (From the Seattle Post-Intelligencer)

A happy phrase has been coined by the Canadian Minister of Agriculture. Announcing a project for bringing settlers to Ontario, he says "Inducents will be offered the 'new poor' in England—those impoverished by high cost of living."

If the Canadian official has real ailments to offer he can fill any demand or opportunity that exists in Ontario or other parts of Canada with "new poor" from the United States and save transatlantic transportation. The poor we have always had with us; and being hit by high living cost to the U. S. stage puts one in the new poor class, we can offer Canada anywhere from ten to twenty millions from which to select the desired population. But the ailments must be strong. No merely affable invitation will serve, and an appeal to our more or less manifested admiration for our northern neighbors will not draw us across the border.

And, moreover, we will insist upon having clearly explained to us the present and considerable movement in northern Ontario to secede from the provincial government. Canadian news papers tell us this secession project is unimportant, but it is important enough to disturb the equality of the government and to arouse the suspicion in our minds that we have misapprehended the state of peace and administrative efficiency which we had been led to believe always existed across the boundary. Perhaps, after all, the new poor of England would be the more satisfied and the more satisfactory new population for the fertile fields of Ontario which the Minister of Agriculture needs to have brought under cultivation.

GEN. DENIKINE'S GOV'T. FALLS

(By Associated Press.)

London, Jan. 3.—General Denikine's government in southern Russia has been overthrown and General Romanovsky has been chosen to replace General Denikine as anti-Bolshevik chief according to a Bolshevik report received here from Moscow. General Denikine's fall is confirmed as probably a result of his recent defeats by the Bolsheviks in southern Russia. During the past autumn, Denikine's forces moved steadily northward defeating the Soviet troops in many battles and apparently threatening Moscow. After he had reached Orel, 120 miles south of the Soviet Capital, however, he encountered the "Reds" which, even developed into a fight extending over virtually a continuous front, 400 miles in length.

He is the son of the late Captain J. Albert Sanborn, and a brother of Mrs. J. H. Washburn of this city. He was seated in Palmto, Fla., where he worked on a tomato plantation.

LT. HILL WRITES OF THE SUNNY SOUTH

Suggests That Our Chamber of Commerce Take a Tip
From Miami.

My Dear Mr. Hartford:

I think I have been here about long enough to write the letter I promised you on Miami. It would be money well spent to send a delegation from the Chamber of Commerce down here to learn what booming a town means, for the people here are just masters in that art.

The weather is perfect but it costs quite a little to enjoy it. I have been here two months and have yet to meet a native Miamian. Everybody comes from somewhere else—Chicago and Kokomo leading the list.

Every other man and for that matter woman is a real estate agent and most of the buying is for quick selling. Miami can't teach Portsmouth much when it comes to working the tourist business; it's all the traffic will bear and then some.

Anyone contemplating buying an orange or grape fruit orchard in this vicinity I would advise don't, unless you come here and squat on it. In setting out trees it is necessary to blast out holes and after being set out constant care is necessary to get results. Very little, if anything, grows without fertilizer. Water pipes must be run through the orchards as constant wetting is necessary.

There is a bug for everything, and I don't blame the farmers for charging so much for their stuff. Riding through the country the other day I saw strawberry vines drenched in a yellow, powdery stuff. On making inquiries I found it was done to keep red ants from eating the plants. However, as they asked one dollar a basket for berries I guess they come out even, possibly a trifle ahead.

Plants are not the only place one finds bugs. I was startled out of a year's growth the other night when I heard my wife screaming like a demon. On searching out the rumpus I found her perched on the back of the highest chair trying to climb up the wall. When I appeared she shouted, "There it is. Oh, oh, it's coming right for me." The "thing" was a black cockroach, one of the native kind, about two inches long. Having been shipmates with the things when cruising in the tropics, I was naturally quite brave and after quite a little managed to slay the monster.

One evening while eating a piece of cake, and having about finished it, I noticed what remained was covered with ants. They didn't taste bad—made good only—got that in apples. All of these pests are an impediment to the life of the South.

With all Miami's drawbacks, I am booked for another season for the climate sure is great. At Coconut grove, five miles south of here, there is quite a colony of Admirals, U. S. N., consisting of Housch, Doyle, Coffman and Ross, the latter having a charming bungalow. Admiral Housch has completed a garage on his land and is flying in it watching his house grow. Mrs. Fisher and daughter, Blanche, are nicely located here and are charmed with the place. So say we all, Yours,

W. L. HILL.

CROWD SMASHES GATES AT THE ARMY STORES

Boston, Jan. 3.—A crowd of unexpected proportions stormed the Quartermaster retail Army store on D street, South Boston, Thursday morning. Several thousand assembled before the opening of the gates at 9 o'clock and, becoming impatient at standing in the biting air, smashed the barriers and swarmed into the store. The clerical force there, owing to the decreasing patronage of late, was inadequate to meet the demands made upon it and it was not until nearly noon that Colonel S. L. Glasgow, in charge of the retail sales, was able to assemble enough help to care for the crowd.

paired and hundreds shivered in the cold, waiting for admittance.

The reason for the unexpected rush was the announcement of additional lines of subsistence supplies to be placed on sale. These consisted of peas at nine cents per can, jam at 21 cents, oleomargarine at $1.50 for a five pound tin, candy at 25 cents per pound and a few other edibles in small supply. The expected patronage of the blanket and underclothing departments was much smaller than of those where subsistence supplies were available.

RECORD FLIGHT BY MAIL PLANE

Makes 215 Miles Without a Stop in 83 Minutes.

RECORD FLIGHT ... QQ1QT
Washington, Jan. 3.—All American records for a non-stop flight of more than 200 miles are believed by post-office department officials to have been broken yesterday by James H. Knight, an air mail pilot, who flew with a load of mail from Cleveland to Bellefonte, Penn., a distance of 215 miles, in 83 minutes. The flight was made at an average of 155 miles an hour, an hour and seven minutes better than a similar trip made by Knight last September. The start from Cleveland was made in a rising snow storm.

PANNAWAY CLUB HAS NEW YEAR'S PARTY

The Pannaway Club house on the banks of Sagamore Creek, was the scene of a merry party on New Year's Eve when nearly 75 of the members gathered to welcome in the New Year. The rooms were made home like with bright fires burning in the hearth places and the Christmas decorations gave the place a festive air. A bounteous and inviting supper was served in the early evening, the menu including chicken salad, sandwiches, coffee, assorted cake, and ice cream. The service concluded the attention of the gathering was called to the Christmas tree upon which was a gift placed for each one. Santa Claus was impersonated by Dr. E. S. ELKS PLAN A BIG BALL

The Portsmouth Lodge of Elks are making plans for their annual ball which will be held on Monday evening Jan. 26, at Freeman's hall. They have secured the McEnaney orchestra which has always been a great favorite here and they plan for one of the biggest affairs that this lodge has conducted, which is going some.

JUNIORS PLAN TRACK EVENTS

The Y. M. C. A. will have their first two track events next Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. These will be the six potato race, and running high jump. The winner will get the points toward the total points for the prizes to be given at the gymnasium banquet held in April.

"BIFF" WAS SOME RARE OLD BIRD

Here is "Biff," a rare old member of the feline race who was as busy in his last days as he was when a kitten. "Biff" was owned by Mrs. James Plabon on Thornton street and did not shuffle off this mortal coil to cat heaven until he was 20 years old.

Nothing in the recent line ever got by him and he put an end to as many rats and mice at that age as he did when he was a romping kitten. He was a great pet of the family and a very intelligent animal. He was cock-of-the-walk in the neighborhood and monarch of all he surveyed.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Harsley of Norfolk, Va., have issued cards announcing the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Mildred Harsley to George Ray Gove of Boston, a former well known and popular Portsmouth young man.

"Y" CLASSES GIVE FINE EXHIBITION

Over 300 enthusiastic people crowded the running track in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last night and witnessed a very gratifying program of the class and floor work of the "Y" members. The exhibition started promptly at 8 o'clock and began by a march of all the classes who lined up in the locker rooms and marched down the stairs to the gym floor. After the march the Juniors did themselves credit by their enthusiastic drill and march and special prize was given to them for their work of pyramid building.

Next came a basketball relay race between two teams composed of members from the employed boys' and senior classes. This was watched with keen interest. The seniors then gave a pleasing march and dumb-bell drill which was watched with keen interest by the spectators.

E. F. McCann of the Springfield Y. M. C. A. college gym team was then introduced and held the audience amazed by his excellent and graceful work on the parallel bars. This was a special feature of the exhibition.

Next came a contest called "Skin the Snake," between the Seniors and Juniors, and the Juniors easily outclassed and defeated their older opponents. The Juniors then put on an exciting dumb bell relay race which was enjoyed by all.

Mr. McCann then gave a few exhibitions in turning and tumbling, with the assistance of Mr. Ballard.

The next event was a wrestling match between the physical director, J. Fred Hicks, and his brother, Albert B. Hicks. There was plenty of action shown in this bout and a goodly number of holds obtained and broken. Wendell Phillips acted as referee.

Mr. McCann then gave a fine exhibition on the horse, which was greatly appreciated by the spectators. The last event of the evening's program was a basketball game between the Seniors and Employed Boys. The Seniors won by the score of 18 to 12. Albert Hicks was the star player for the Seniors, he getting sixteen of eighteen points made. He shot seven baskets from the floor, two baskets from foul. Avery Eastman did fine work for the Employed Boys, caging the ball four times.

The work of the evening's program was considered well worth attending by all who witnessed it. J. Fred Hicks, physical director of the Association, was in charge of the entire affair.

GOOD CARD FOR BOXING SHOW

The Rockingham A. C. are to give another boxing show on Wednesday Jan. 7 and the card looks like a big evening's entertainment for the boxing fans. The main bout should be a drawing card in itself. Artie Williams the game lad who remained with Warren the big sailor to long at the last show will meet a man of his own weight for the first time.

LOOKING THEM OVER WITH THE SPORT FAN

Portsmouth basketball fans are going to see a good basketball game next Thursday evening when Henry Cingen's professional team goes against the Springfield, Vt., team managed by "Booby" Vance, one of the best professional players in the game. Besides Vance, the Springfield team will be composed of one man from the Pennsylvania State League, two from the New York State League, one from the White Bears of Boston. Vance and his players have won 12 straight games and for the past three years Springfield has held the championship of Vermont. Manager Cingen has a number of fast teams booked for this city, among them being the Bunker Hill Council team of Boston.

The Portsmouth Navy Yard basketball team continues to play in hard luck. The yard team went to Sanford Thursday evening losing by a close score.

A memorial cup has been given to the Phillips Exeter Academy by Chas. E. L. Wingate, 70, of Boston, in memory of his son, the late Dana J. P. Wingate, captain of the 1910 baseball nine, and also for three years a member of the Harvard nine and captain in his senior year.

Jim Poulton, the Manchester wrestling promoter, has been receiving so many "samples" from the wrestling fans of this city that the bout between London and Zhyzka, recently staged there was pre-arranged, that he has issued a denial in the newspapers.

Eugene Tremblay of Montreal and Joe Partridge will wrestle at Manchester next Monday night. In the semi-final Joe Perrelli will attempt the toughest stuff against Kid Layvine.

Manager Dow of the Rockingham A. C. has completed a fine boxing card for next Wednesday evening. In the main bout Young Jimmie Gardner of Philadelphia will go against Art Williams of Brockton. Williams made many friends in this city on his last appearance here due to the fact that he put up such a great battle against Billy Warren of the Huntington, Warren, outweighting the Brockton boy by about 30 pounds. Warren is also on the card and will tackle K. O. Pierce of Biddleford a boxer of his own weight who should be able to keep the sailor busy.

John Kileas, the fastest wrestler in the game will make his second appearance of the season here on Jan. 12 and will have an opponent Cyclone Hess of New York.

Dartmouth graduates around Boston headed by Leon Trick, will enter a team in the Dub Hockey league and seem to have abundant talent upon which to draw for a crack seven. The ninth winter carnival of the Dartmouth Outing club, which usually has a hockey game as one of its features, is announced for Feb. 12, 13 and 14.

At Portland, Me., next Monday evening Al Shubert of New Bedford will appear in the main bout against Dick Loughner of New York. In the semi-final Bunting Downey of Boston will go eight rounds with Dusty Kroll of Bangor.

Harry Kathon, the Portland wrestler who has no waterweight in the world, has issued a challenge to Charlie Metro. While the Portland man is a good waterweight, he would have his good waterweight but would have his troubles training Charlie who in one of the best of the middleweights.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

DEMAND CONTINUES TO INCREASE

According to information from the Home Office of the Ford Motor Company, Detroit, their unfilled orders are continually increasing and have long since ceased to be reckoned by the thousands, but are now a matter of hundreds of thousands, and the present demand is not held met.

Already Ford Dealers in those states where winter brings a slight decline in the number of sales are advising prospective spring purchasers to buy now. Nothing but real orders will bring cars to their territory. Southern dealers and foreign demand will otherwise consume the entire output.

JAPANESE SEES DANGER AHEAD

Consul-General at New York Gives Interview to Tokio Paper.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Chenoshuke Yada, Japanese consul-general at New York, who is now at home on a leave of absence, has granted the Tokio newspaper Asahi an interview in which he is credited with having declared that the relationship between Japan and the United States "is in considerable danger and it is urgently necessary that the relations between the two countries be placed on a more friendly basis than is the case at present."

This statement does not tally with the assertions that have been made here by state department officials and members of the Japanese embassy who have asserted informally that the relations between the two countries were on a very sound and friendly basis.

These extracts from the Yada interview have been cabled to Washington from Tokio.

"The Shantung amendment as proposed by the Republicans is no doubt intended for the purpose of vexing the President, but primarily it must have originated with their disgust with Japan's policy toward China. America has been watching Japan's attitude toward China with suspicion and her suspicion has increased since the conclusion of the China-Japanese agreement of 1915.

"America has always suspected Japan's territorial ambition in China, and although Japan's paramountcy in China is recognized by European countries this has never been recognized by America. It is true that America was induced to recognize Japan's special interests in China, but a clear definition of 'special interests' still remains to be explained.

"Frankly speaking, the relationship between Japan and America is in considerable danger and it is urgently necessary that the relations between the two countries be placed on a more sound, friendly basis than is the case at present. Apart from the vapors of the yellow papers, there can be no manner of doubt that the feeling of Americans and Japanese is greatly strained, and in order to reach a mutual understanding nothing would be more important for the two peoples than to meet in a friendly way to discuss the situation in a full and frank manner.

"Intelligent Americans are convinced of the necessity of such method so that friendly relations might be brought about between both countries. This is work that should not be left to ambassadors and other officials, but politicians, business men and other public men should unite for the settlement of a common object. A proposal is now afoot to organize a committee consisting of politicians, business men and representatives of other classes and the committee will be dispatched to America charged with a mission of restoring friendly relations between America and Japan by means of speeches and interviews."

WILSON SIGNS SUGAR BILL

Washington, Jan. 2.—President Wilson has signed the McNary bill, controlling the United States Sugar Equalization Board through 1920. It was announced Thursday at the White House that his signature had been attached before midnight Wednesday night.

Secretary Tamm, in making the announcement, issued this statement: "The President has signed the sugar control bill. The bill confers discretion on the President in the matter of purchasing sugar from Cuba. It is doubtful whether it will be practicable or wise for the President to exercise the power conferred, so far as the purchase and distribution of sugar are concerned."

Some of the Cuban sugar has already been purchased and there is no central control over sugar in Cuba, as there were last year, and it might therefore be impossible for the government now to step in and purchase the sugar with out increasing the price to the consumer.

The bill, however, continues the licensing power also, and this power may be used to assist in controlling the marketing of sugar. Much Cuban sugar is coming in now and the indications are that prices have reached their peak and that there will be a tendency for prices to fall in the next few weeks.

WOMAN'S CITY CLUB HELD OPEN HOUSE NEW YEAR'S DAY

The Woman's City club held its opening gathering on New Year's afternoon at the Woman's Building on Middle street, and the affair proved a success in every way. The house was from three to five in the afternoon and seven to nine in the evening. More than 94 persons joined in the afternoon and made up the 125 charter members. Misses Jocelyn McDonough and Marion Miller gave photo selections during the afternoon. Refreshments of sandwiches, assorted cakes, tea and chocolate were served. Mrs. Harold Smith and Miss Alberta Hoyer presided.

The aim of the club was discussed this being to establish broad acquaintance among the women of Portsmouth and vicinity through the common interest in the promotion of welfare of this city and the state of New Hampshire, to provide an open forum where leaders in matters of public importance could be frequently heard and to provide a place where the members may meet informally. It is planned to have the club rooms at the Woman's Building open every day and evening throughout the year for the use of the members. The club will have four committees, house, hospitality, membership and publicity. Plans will be made to have some special feature each Friday evening for the present. A luncheon supper once a month will be served and some special speaker will give a talk at these monthly gatherings. On the afternoon of January 9, Misses Mildred Robert and Katherine Denno of the high school teaching staff will speak. January 16 Mrs. Lee T. Gray will give a musical. On January 23, Mrs. Flora Spaulding executive secretary of shirt work in this state, will give a talk on "Stretching the Dollar." On January 29 a supper will be served and the annual meeting of the club held. Mrs. L. H. Hanyer will give a talk on "The Armenian Question."

NEARLY WOUND UP

The business of the Shattuck Shipbuilding Company is fast being wound up, and it is expected that within a month what few officials and clerks are now there will be gone. The Chemical Dye Stuffs Company, which has purchased a part of the land for business purposes, is taking over most of the buildings that were used by the shipbuilding company.

What lumber is remaining has been sold to a Massachusetts concern, which has a gang of men at work loading it onto the cars ready for shipment to other parts. Work on new buildings for the chemical company is progressing rapidly, and they hope to have their plant ready to operate about the first of April.

A year ago today over 3,000 men and women were employed at the Shattuck plant. Today there are less than a hundred and the place looks like a deserted village.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

It is expected that all residents of the Island Town who go to church will be in the congregation. Dr. G. L. Hanson will have charge of the service and eight or more persons will unite with the church on Sunday morning. In the evening a musical service will be held and Mr. Clapton will assist as violinist.

ANNUAL MEETING OF BAPTIST CHURCH

The annual meeting of the Middle Street Baptist church was held last evening in the chapel with a good attendance. The reports of the various organizations were read and an outline given of the various activities of the past year. It was shown there had been a noticeable increase in the offerings during the past year and that the Woman's Missionary society and King's Daughters of the parish had done especially good work during the year. The Sunday school has voted to present $120 as a Christmas gift for the Near East relief. The school has had a prosperous year and now has a good balance in the treasury.

The annual election of officers was held, those serving last year being re-elected. The officers:

Clerk—Lewis E. Staples.
Deacons—Charles H. Clough, Lewis E. Staples, William H. Lovell, Frank C. Remick.

Standing committee—The Deacons, with Henry A. Yeaton, Harry W. Wendell, Willie T. Lord, Mrs. Henry A. Yeaton, Mrs. Charles A. Wendell, Mrs. William O. Slides, Mrs. Dora P. French, Miss Nellie Slides, Miss Alice Chase, Mrs. Albert G. Plummer, Mrs. W. H. Shaw.

Miss Anna Seavey and N. S. Holmes were elected for three years on the missionary committee to fill vacancies.

After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and associated cake, ice cream and coffee served.

Plans are being made for a farewell reception to Rev. and Mrs. William P. Stanley on Jan. 22. Rev. Mr. Stanley concludes his duties as pastor on Sunday and will later in the month take up their residence in Gloucester, Mass., their former home.

TO HAVE PICNIC

One of the students at the Naval Academy who has made good in athletic work as well as his studies is Edward C. Ewen. Again this well-

STREET CAR AND
JITNEY IN CRASH*Came Together on Congress
Street; Front of Electric Much Damaged.

Car No. 2 over the Rye line, arriving at Market Square just before 1 p. m. today crashed into a large jitney which runs to Atlantic Heights. The jitney, which was parked near the Portsmouth News Agency, is said to have backed out on to the track just as the electric car passed over the switch on Congress street. The jitney suffered but little injury but the glass work in the front of the electric car was entirely smashed.

There has been many narrow escapes in this locality of late when jitneys back out on the car tracks. To avoid a serious accident which is certain to come if the jitneys continue to park on this section of Congress street, the jitneys should stand in another location where there is more room to operate them without being up against such danger to patrons of the autos and electric cars. Besides, the situation causes a frequent delay to the electric line.
